3. Attention all 8th graders! Have you ever wanted to explore the east coast, see Washington D.C. and New York city? Mr. Harrington will be taking another group of students to the east coast this summer! There will be a parent meeting today Thursday at 6pm. Don't miss out, this will be a trip of a lifetime.
4. 8th graders, it's time to sign up for CJSF again. Get your applications from Ms. Sensney in room 13, Mrs. Campbell in room 27 or your science teacher. Applications are due in the office at 3:30 on September 20th. No late applications will be accepted.
5. The library is open this week.
6. The La Loma soccer and volleyball teams are ready to compete today against Mark Twain! Bring your rally towels, noise makers, and spirit shirts to support the Lancers in these exciting contests right here at La Loma. Flavored Snow Cones will be available to purchase on the blacktop, and snacks and drinks will be available to purchase in the gym. Go Lancers! Beat Mark Twain!
7. Are you ready to rock the 1980's? This Friday is La Loma's first dance of the year and the theme is 80's! Cost is $5 at the door. La Loma is also having its first dress-up day of the year so wear your 80's outfit all day and participate in the costume contest at the dance! Get your 80's on and dress up in 80's style. Food, drinks, and glow in the dark bracelets will be for sale!
8. Extended summer school ballots are due to Ms. Marcelino in the office immediately! Classes start Friday!
